Mr. SCHULER moved:

Resolution No. 12: Bill 44 – The Labour Relations Amendment Act (2)

WHEREAS Bill 44, The Labour Relations Amendment Act (2), which received Royal Assent on August 18, 2000, was a highly publicized piece of legislation that received much criticism across the province; and

WHEREAS Bill 44 is widely believed to reflect negatively on Manitoba's economy, possibly even discouraging businesses from locating in Manitoba thereby inhibiting the province's future growth and prosperity; and

WHEREAS the Provincial Government did not adequately consider public debate on Bill 44, invoking closure on the Standing Committee on Industrial Relations, prompting many delegations to leave rather than be forced to present in the middle of the night; and

WHEREAS The Labour Relations Amendment Act (2) denies workers of their democratic rights to a secret ballot vote for or against union certification, making certification automatic when 65% or more of affected employees sign union cards; and

WHEREAS the Provincial Government appeared to condone acts of violence when it initially sought to include in its amendments to The Labour Relations Act the requirement that employers hire back employees who participated in violence during a strike; and

WHEREAS Bill 44 is a regressive piece of legislation that limits workers' rights to a free and democratic vote in their workplace.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislative Assembly of Manitoba urge the Provincial Government to consider revoking Bill 44 to provide an environment which is more conducive to future business development in Manitoba; and

Thursday, June 6, 2002

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislative Assembly of Manitoba urge the Provincial Government to heed the words of the Minister of Labour and Immigration when she stated on November 9, 2000 that: "In order to go into binding arbitration, both sides would have to agree to it...it would be very unfair if only one side agreed to binding arbitration and the other side didn't."

And a debate arising,

And Mr. SCHULER, Hon. Ms. BARRETT and Mr. JENNISSON having spoken,

And Mr. STRUTHERS speaking at 6:00 p.m. The debate was allowed to remain in his name.

The House then adjourned at 6:00 p.m. until 1:30 p.m. Monday, June 10, 2002.

Hon. George HICKES,
Speaker.
